Iron Tribe is hosting The City of Roses Annual Resource Festival on Saturday, July 31st from 10am. till 6pm. Pioneer Square of scenic downtown Portland, Oregon will set the stage for this yearly event. The goal of this event is to empower community and connect Portlanders to the varied existing organizations that offer resources. These resources range from housing to support for a variety of issues that Portlanders face during these difficult economic times.

Iron Tribe is partnering with Senator Chip Shield, Sisters of the Road, Dual-Diagnosis Anonymous, Street Roots, Volunteers of America (VOA) Men's Residential Center/Women's Residential Center, Partnership for Safety and Justice, Central City Concern, SE Works, Solutions, New Avenues for Youth, Bridges to Change Housing, Hands Across the Bridge, Ox Fest and various local community organizations and businesses in this Festival including Wells Fargo. Commissioner Nick Fish and Senator Chip Shields have been invited to speak at this event. In promoting community, this festival will offer various family events and activities for all ages. Speakers will share story of their experience with community resources and how it has affected their lives. Local bands will be performing and an atmosphere of fun, cooperation and outreach will fill Pioneer Square.

Resource organizations that benefit men, women, and children, the homeless and transitioning ex-cons will be in attendance, as well as local businesses that offer support and services to all Portlanders. It is our hope to provide a platform of sharing and cooperation during the festival to address some of the unique issues that currently affects many underserved Portlanders. Foods, beverages, and crafts will also be offered during the festival, making it a day of celebration and outreach.

Making a difference in the life of a Portlander, supporting community and promoting the mission of your organization are among the benefits of participation in this event. Projected attendance at this event will be 6 to 10 thousand including foot traffic.

Event Partnership of this event is available at a cost of $500, which includes event table space, identification on promotional tools, marketing labels, news releases, event shout-outs and logo placement on 20 ft. City of Resource Festival's featured banner.

Co- Sponsorship is available at a cost of $150, which includes event table space at a determined location at this event, identification on promotional tools and marketing labels. A limited number of vendors will be allowed at this event.

We encourage your organization, bureau or business to join us in this day of festivities and support by registering as an Event Partner or Co-Sponsor and hosting a table at our festival.
